DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Specification

2. The spacing of the lines of the specification is such as to make reading and entry of amendments difficult. New application papers with lines double spaced on good quality paper are required.
3. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities:
 - I. The specification refers to claim 1(specification, page 1, line1). This is improper.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Objections

4. Claim 3 is objected to because of the following informalities:
5. I. In claim 3, line 1, the cobalt is recited as, "39% cobalt". It is questioned whether applicants intended, "39 to 41% cobalt" disclosed on page 1, the first line of the last paragraph. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101/112

6. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

7. Claims 1 to 3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 and dependent claims 2 and 3 provide for the use of a material based on cobalt, nickel and chromium, but, since the claims do not set forth any steps involved in the method/process, it is unclear what method/process applicant is intending to encompass. A claim is indefinite where it merely recites a use without any active, positive steps delimiting how this use is actually practiced.

Claims 1 to 3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed recitation of a use, without setting forth any steps involved in the process, results in an improper definition of a process, i.e., results in a claim which is not a proper process claim under 35 U.S.C. 101. See for example Ex parte Dunki, 153 USPQ 678 (Bd.App. 1967) and Clinical Products, Ltd. v. Brenner, 255 F. Supp. 131, 149 USPQ 475 (D.D.C. 1966).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

8. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

9. Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ogawa et al. (Ogawa, US Patent No. 5,190,832).

Ogawa teaches an alloy consisting essentially of, in weight percent, 15 to 35 % Cr (column 4, lines 45 to 46), 0.5 to 4% Mo (column 5, lines 1 to 6), 40 to 60 % Co (column 5, lines 7 to 15), 5 to 15 % Fe (column 5, lines 15 to 22) and 0.5 to 5% W (column 5, lines 23 to 30). This alloy composition overlaps the alloy composition recited in applicants' claim 2.

The claims and Ogawa differ in that Ogawa does not teach the exact same alloy composition recited in applicants' claims.

However, one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made would have considered the invention to have been obvious because as discussed above applicants' claim 2 and Ogawa overlap and a prima facie case of obviousness exists when the ranges of a claimed invention overlap the ranges disclosed in the prior art, In re Geisler 43 USPQ2d 1365 (Fed. Cir. 1997); In re Woodruff, 16 USPQ2d 1934 (CCPA 1976); In re Malagari, 182 USPQ 549, 553 (CCPA 1974) and MPEP 2144.05.

10. Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over each of Doherty et al. (Doherty, US Patent No. 4,931,255) or Slaney (US Patent No. 3,767,385).

Each of the references teaches an alloy having a composition that overlaps the alloy composition recited in the instant claims. See, Doherty, column 2, lines 31 to 42 and Slaney, column 2, lines 9 to 17.

The claims and the references differ in that the references do not teach the exact same alloy composition recited in applicants' claim 3.

However, one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made would have considered the invention to have been obvious because the alloy composition in applicants' claim 3 and the alloy composition disclosed by the references overlap and therefore the alloys taught by the references are considered to establish a prima facie case of obviousness, In re Geisler 43 USPQ2d 1365 (Fed. Cir. 1997); In re Woodruff, 16 USPQ2d 1934 (CCPA 1976); In re Malagari, 182 USPQ 549, 553 (CCPA 1974) and MPEP 2144.05.
